

Dear Professional Educator:

In response to demand from educators who aspire to leadership roles and new career options, Quinnipiac University developed the Master of Science in Teacher Leadership and you may apply now for January!

The program objectives are aligned with the standards of the Educational Leadership Constituent Council (www.ncate.org). And because this program was designed with teachers in mind, you already meet the initial admission requirement as a teacher.

The Master of Science in Teacher Leadership is offered 100% online and may be completed in less than 2 years.

Beginning the process for a master's degree program is easier than you may believe. Below, I have summarized our program's admissions requirements for a quick, easy review. You will notice there are no standardized tests required for consideration. If you are interested in moving forward in the pursuit of your professional goals, take the initial steps by applying online, and one of our admissions staff members will contact you with further details.

Master of Science in Teacher Leadership

- Must be a current teacher, former teacher or have access to a school
- Bachelors from regionally accredited institution
- Minimum GPA of 2.67
- 2 recommendations from supervisors
- Written essay and interview
- Application
- Resume
- Letter of intent
- Official transcripts

We look forward to speaking with you soon. For more information about the program, please visit us online or call us at 1-877-403-4277.

Best regards,

Valerie Schlesinger
Director of Admissions for Online Programs
Quinnipiac University
Hamden, CT 06518

